

Energy Policy

Tadiran Batteries Ltd., which uses energy, sees saving energy consumption, reducing operating costs, and minimizing damage to the environment as one of the values by which the company is managed.

Improving energy performance is of interest and responsibility of each of the company's employees. The company manages an energy management system based on iso 50001:2018 standard – energy management system – requirements and guidelines for use.

The company upholds the laws and regulations of the State of Israel regarding energy management. The energy management activities help tackle climate change by reducing CO2 greenhouse gas emissions.

The activities in which the company focuses:

- Adoption as a way of life and ensuring the procurement of facilities, tools and machines with special attention to the efficient use of energy and the introduction of constant improvements.
- Ensure that all employees of the company as well as our customers and suppliers are aware of this policy.
- Act continuously to reduce energy consumption.
- Act continuously to improve energy efficiency in the company.
- Work to find engineering solutions that will lead to energy savings in the company.
- Guide and encourage the company's employees to save energy.
- To set goals and targets for energy efficiency and to work toward achieving them, improving them and updated them periodically.
- To ensure that control points have been identified for treatment, periodic monitoring and energy tests are carried out, targets are set, the causes of abnormalities are analyzed and actions are carried out to correct / prevent and improve.
- To present data and publish findings to the attention of company managers and employees.
- The company will allocate resources and means for the proper operation of the company's energy management system.
- Tracking of greenhouse gas emissions due to energy use and improvements in emissions reduction.

The company will include energy management considerations in the development, industrialization, operations, engineering and economic processes in an aspiration to reduce negative environmental impacts.

The company will work to tighten contact with the authorities on energy management issues.

Zvika Weinreb

Energy Management Represent

Igal Carmi

CEO, Tadiran Batteries